

Naming Factors, Contexts, and Outcomes to Direct an Exploration of Sources

While we are reading the student essay, please take notes and begin to name related factors, contexts, and outcomes that, if pursued, would help to reveal greater complexity. Please cite page and paragraph numbers for quick reference. In the second column begin to explain how and why further exploration and discussion of each specific factor, context, and outcome will benefit the inquiry/essay. Please feel free to bring this activity to your own inquiry/essay.
